

You Can Mean the World to Someone

Dear Ethan,

One act of kindness is all it takes to make someone smile, show someone you care or make a difference in someone's day. One act of kindness can mean the world to someone.

CaringBridge brings families together to support each other. There are so many families in the middle of a health journey that are feeling lonely and isolated - they need the support CaringBridge provides.

Please join the One Act of Kindness campaign by donating to CaringBridge.

Additionally, we are adding more options for authors and visitors to access CaringBridge sites.
